Cambridge English Preliminary

Preliminary English Test (PET)

Practical English for everyday use

Cambridge English: Preliminary is developed using the principles and approaches of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) – the internationally accepted system for describing language ability.

Cambridge English: Preliminary is at CEFR Level B1. At this level users can understand factual information and show awareness of opinions, attitudes and mood in both spoken and written English. It can be used as proof of your ability to use English to communicate with native speakers for everyday purposes.

Your results

Cambridge English: Preliminary – Level B2

Pass with Distinction

Exceptional candidates sometimes show ability beyond Level B1. If you achieve a Pass with Distinction, you will receive the Preliminary English Test certificate stating that you demonstrated ability at Level B2.

Cambridge English: Preliminary – Level B1

Pass with Merit, Pass

If you achieve a Pass or Pass with Merit in your exam you will be awarded the Preliminary English Test certificate at Level B1. Reaching this level shows that you are developing your language abilities and are ready for the next challenge.

Format of the exam

Cambridge English: Preliminary has three papers:

Reading and Writing: 1 hour 30 minutes

Shows you can read and understand the main points from signs, journals, newspapers and magazines, and can use vocabulary and structure correctly.

Listening: 30 minutes (approx)

Requires you to be able to follow and understand a range of spoken materials including announcements and discussions about everyday life.

Speaking: 10–12 minutes

Tests your ability to take part in conversation; you will be required to ask and answer questions and talk about the things you like and dislike. Your Speaking test will be taken face-to-face with one or two other candidates. This makes your test more realistic and reliable.
